

Position

The Financial and Reporting Analyst will bring his knowledge to the finance team doing financial planning and analysis.

You have a minimum of 7 years experience in finance and planning, a bachelor's degree, an Accounting Designation (CPA), and a good knowledge of IFRS standards? It's a great opportunity to be part of a growing and dynamic team!

Responsibilities

- Preparation of monthly reporting package including variance analysis of the various products and department profit and loss statements.
- Contribute to the overall process for the development of the annual budget and periodic forecast updates.
- Perform scenario analysis of business initiatives relative to the annual budget and strategic plan.
- Contribute to the annual capital planning process and establish methods to monitor and manage investments.
- Prepare various financial reporting presentations.
- Monitoring and Analysis of key organizational KPIs.

Benefits

Flexible hours

Lunch and learn

Group insurance

Group RRSP

Fruits, bagels, free coffee

Social and sports activities (Board games, video games, hockey cosom, 5 to 7, etc...)

Offices 8 minutes from metro station Pie-IX.

Profile

The candidate is fluently bilingual in French and English, both verbal and written.

And has a proficiency with MS Office applications.

Abilities

Strong analytical skills

Ability to work independently

Manage priorities

Dynamic, passionate, proactive

Great interpersonal skills

Dental Wings

Dental Wings is a growing tech company, who, through digital solutions, improves lives of dental patients.

Our team is composed of 200 passionate, curious and creative employees, spread across several countries.

rh@dentalwings.com